FUUMUI

Fuumuui is a family-owned art-supply company known for its professional brushes. Every brush is meticulously hand-crafted by artisans who have been with the family for years. They believe “the tools an artist uses should be as soulful and enduring as the art they create.”

Judge: Emily Efferson, LWS

Emily Efferson LWS is a Baton Rouge, LA native who has been painting most of her life. Her love of art began at a young age and continued into college. Later, life and work got in the way, and she stopped painting for almost 20 years. Her sister, one of her greatest advocates, died unexpectedly in 1995 at the age of 46. For Emily, it was a devastating loss, but she continued to feel her sister's encouragement. In 1997 she got back to painting, and in 2006 she found her true calling in watercolor.

Emily studied under local and national award-winning watercolorist Kathy Miller Stone, LWS-M, NWS for several years and credits her as one of her greatest mentors. She has also taken workshops from many other renowned and award-winning watercolor artists. She paints at her home studio and occasionally teaches a few classes, but mainly she looks forward to painting weekly with other artist friends at the Art Guild of Louisiana “Open Studio” sessions. Emily says, “Just to be among other artists painting together gives me joy and inspiration and it's where I feel I do some of my best work.”

Emily believes Louisiana has some of the most beautiful places to paint anywhere in the world with its natural palette of colorful swamps, plantation homes, live oak trees and its abundance of wildlife. She loves painting anything in the French Quarter, streetcars, and Louisiana seafood. She claims, “If you’re an artist from Louisiana and ever moved away, you know exactly how it feels to come back home to find the surrounding beauty just waiting to be reawakened with a brush!”

Emily holds executive board positions in the Louisiana Watercolor Society (LWS) and in the Art Guild of Louisiana (AGL), as well as memberships in the Northwest Watercolor Society and Southwestern Watercolor Society.

Emily is honored to have received signature status with LWS, and to have been juried into the National River Road Exhibit (AGL) at the Louisiana State Archives for the past 13 years (2013 – 2026), and into the LSU Brush with Burden Exhibit each year from 2013 until it ended in 2016. She has been invited to show in the Baton Rouge Art League Show (invitation only) each year for the past 13 years. Emily sells her paintings and on occasion does commissions, but mostly she paints for the LOVE of it. She lovingly gives many of her paintings to family and friends and donates paintings to charitable organizations.
