President's Corner

Louise Hansen
President

South Louisiana has suffered a devastating flood, which I am sure has impacted many of our members, their families and friends. They remain in our thoughts and prayers. However, we are a resilient people and will somehow conquer and move on.

Thanks to our tenacious board, I want to assure you that LWS is moving forward with our agenda for fall 2016 and spring 2017. Starting with our fall members meeting on September 18th, we are excited to have LWS member and former president William "Dak" McInnis give a presentation. A fall workshop slated for October 4th and 5th will be conducted by LWS signature member Diane St. Germain. On October 27th we are pleased to have a demonstration on Golden Artist Colors introducing a new watercolor paint.

Details on these events are in the newsletter and on our website. I encourage everyone that can, to join us. You won't be disappointed.

Watch for an announcement of a special event celebrating Christmas.

I want to thank everyone for their encouragement and support and putting their faith in my abilities to lead us through these next months. I could not do it without you, and I sincerely believe, that with your help, Louisiana Watercolor Society will continue to grow in numbers and prestige as one of the premier Art Societies.

Louise Hansen,
President
