Judge: Pio Lyons LWS-M

Pio Lyons is an award winning artist and Master Signature member of the Louisiana Watercolor Society. Before retiring as an architect, Pio's firm was responsible for several notable projects in the New Orleans area including: the National D-Day Museum, the Chapel at Touro Synagogue, the new Louisiana Supreme Court facility at the old Wildlife and Fisheries Building in the French Quarter and the Loews Hotel.

Member Show Chair: Jan Wilken LWS

Exhibit Rules:

Original watercolors on PAPER, completed in the past 3 years (after May 21, 2018) and never shown before in a LWS show. Mats if used should be white or off white. Plexiglass and wired frames are required. NO GLASS.

No jugs are needed for entry but if you include jpegs with your entry, LWS will be happy to post your paintings on Facebook and Instagram during June to publicize the show.

Hand deliveries only. LWS is unable to accept shipped paintings for this show.

Titles and prices are needed by May 21st so that title cards can be printed for you.

2021 dues must be paid to participate.

Since Oak Knoll is open to the community, all art must be suitable for viewing by people of all ages.

Workshop paintings are not allowed. The use of photographs as reference materials is allowed only if that photograph was taken by the artist submitting the painting.

Entering this show means that you agree to all the rules established by LWS.
