Liability & Declaration of Originality:

Definition of Originality: From concept to execution, this 'original' painting is strictly my own composition. Rules for Submission of Paintings in Louisiana Watercolor Exhibits

1. The use of photographs as reference materials is allowed only if that photograph was taken by the artist submitting the painting. (Permission to use a photograph from another photographer, amateur or professional, relative or friend, is not allowed. Artist may be asked to provide photograph as proof of composition.)

2. Workshop paintings and works painted with the assistance of a teacher are not allowed.

3. A copy of a workshop painting, for instance, re-painting the same composition from the workshop on new paper or support, is not allowed.

Declaration of Originality: I understand and agree by my signature below that violations of the above rules will disqualify my painting from the exhibit. I will abide by the decision of the LWS Board of Directors in matters regarding eligibility. I understand that after the jurying process is completed and my painting is accepted, I cannot withdraw my entry. Withdrawal of juried entry will result in a three-year suspension from entering that exhibit. I also understand that the painting submitted cannot be withdrawn from the exhibit for any reason after the exhibit is hung, or before the 'take-down' date.

Liability: Although the utmost care will be taken in handling entries and paintings, neither LWS, A-Plus Shipping, nor Place St. Charles will have any liability whatsoever for loss or damage to the work, and by submitting a painting to the exhibit, the artist accepts the risk of damage or loss to their painting, and further agrees to indemnify, defend and hold LWS, A-Plus Shipping and Place St. Charles from and against any and all liability for damage, loss or destruction of painting to the LWS Exhibit/Show.

About the Juror: Ken Call AWS, NWS, TWSA Master

Born and raised in Rochelle, Illinois, Ken went on to graduate from the American Academy of Art in 1980 with an Associates Degree in Illustration and Watercolor. After beginning his career as a studio artist, he soon branched out on his own, beginning a successful freelance career, which to date has led to the creation of over 500 illustrations for books, magazines, art publishers, advertising agencies and corporations. Ken spent 1993 and 1994 studying and painting in Paris, France. In the last few years, he has made the transition to fine art and portraiture. Many of his originals are hanging in galleries and homes across the country. Many awards have led to Signature status in the American Watercolor Society, National Watercolor Society, Missouri Watercolor Society, Montana Watercolor Society along with being a Master Signature member with the Transparent Watercolor Society of America and Illinois Watercolor Society. Presently he is busy teaching workshops across the country along with Judging several National shows. Ken now lives in Northbrook Illinois along with his wife and two children.
